Meany May Suspend
Auto Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO is ready to suspend Walter Reuther's big United Auto Workers union in an historic labor split that could spell trouble for the White House bid of Hubert H. Humphrey.

AFL-CIO President George Meany, who founded the 14-million-member labor federation with Reuther 13 years ago, said Monday the UAW will be suspended if it doesn't pay back dues by Wednesday. This is an unlikely prospect in view of the vote by the 1.5-million-member UAW to stop monthly dues payments.

"This is not an expulsion, it is a withdrawal" by the UAW, Meany said. Referring to Reuther, Meany said, "He's taking this method of withdrawing."

"It's to be regretted but that's the way it is," Meany told newsmen.

In Detroit, UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock said his union will not seek to halt the threatened suspension.

"I'm just as glad the AFL took this position," he said without elaboration.

Reuther was unavailable for comment.

The imminent suspension climaxes a two-year fight between Meany and Reuther.

It also appears certain to further fracture organized labor's once united political front into partisan camps pitting supporters of Vice President Humphrey against backers of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The 73-year-old Meany, a one-time Bronx plumber, is committing the giant labor federation's total political support to Humphrey.

Reuther, 60-year-old former Detroit tool and die maker, is reported leaning toward Kennedy.

Meany concedes the AFL-CIO can't deliver a bloc labor vote, and the schism with Reuther is believed likely to further the straying toward the political camps of Kennedy or Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn.

west of Dierks collapsed Monday, closing U. S. 70.

About 20 families were evacuated from their homes in low lying sections of De Queen. One new home was washed off its foundations against a Kansas City Southern Railroad trestle.

At Fort Smith, more than 140 families were evacuated from a Negro housing project about 10 blocks north of the business section and 2 1/2 miles further south 65 persons were evacuated from a rest home for the elderly as more than four inches of rain, most of it within a two-hour span, sent high water into the buildings.

However, many of the families in the two-story housing complex spent the night with friends and relatives on the second floor or somewhere else within the city. The 65 persons at the rest home were housed overnight at Sparks Hospital and at a school for nursing.

Two landslides caused by the rains halted traffic in two areas, but only briefly in one.

Tons of rock from Granite Mountain just south of Little Rock plunged down on a railroad spur line and Arkansas 367, derailing a number of railroad cars and closing the highway to traffic. No one was injured.

A landslide on U.S. 64 between Hartman and Clarksville forced officers to close that major traffic artery for a short time during a severe thunderstorm in that area where trees were uprooted and electric power knocked out.

One tornado reportedly touched down just north of Sheridan but caused only minor damage. Throughout Monday night and early today the Weather Bureau reported a number of tornadoes and funnel clouds aloft and at least half of the state's 75 counties had been placed under tornado or severe thunderstorm watches.

Flooding around Lakes Catherine, Hamilton and Ouachita forced residents in those areas to leave their homes Monday night.

Tornadoes aloft were reported by the bureau near nine Arkansas towns — Lockesburg, Arkadelphia, Magnolia, Humphrey, Poyen, Redfield, Mena, Horatio and Ashdown. Another funnel was sighted in Oklahoma near Fort Smith.

Hail ranging from pea size to marble size fell at Grady, Texarkana, Pine Bluff, Fort Smith and Little Rock.

Flooding also occurred in the Glenwood area near Hot Springs. The Caddo River at Glenwood crested at a record 31.40 feet late Monday and began falling. The previous record was 27.95 feet Flood stage is 15 feet.

nameless troops had threatened to overrun the camp about 30 miles southwest of Da Nang, and U.S. planes evacuated nearly 1,700 allied troops and civilians.

"We evacuated our troops and elected to bomb the hell out of the North Vietnamese, which we're doing right now," a U.S. officer said.

He said the camp was not protecting any major population center nor was it astride any major infiltration route but "was part of a screen, useful to stop infiltration through the area or an occupancy of the enemy."

Nineteen Americans were killed and 125 were wounded fighting a rear-guard action to cover the evacuation. South Vietnamese casualties have not been reported, but the U.S. Command estimated that at least 300 of the enemy were killed in the ground fighting that began last Friday.

The U.S. Command said the camp would be moved to a new site.

The B52 bombers have flown 13 missions around Kham Duc in the last two days, dropping more than 500 tons of bombs on suspected troop concentrations. It was believed the North Vietnamese troops had moved against the camp from sanctuaries in Laos, about 14 miles to the west.

With the enemy's nine-day offensive against Saigon declared crushed, Australian, South Vietnamese and American infantrymen on sweep missions engaged units in seven clashes Monday from four to 29 miles from the capital. Allied casualties were reported light.

In air raids on North Vietnamese southern panhandle, U.S. pilots said their bombs hit two highway bridges Monday near Vinh, 145 miles above the demilitarized zone and about 25 miles below the 19th parallel.

Population Explosion Discussed

ARTHUR STRECH

In a program arranged by Roy Warren the Hope Lions Monday heard Arthur Strech, local realtor, speak on a fascinating and somewhat frightening aspect of the population explosion.

As chairman of the Economic Council Mr. Strech brought out some interesting figures on how the population explosion will affect Hope and Hempstead in housing, services, agriculture and trade.

The projected growth of Hope is 10,500 by 1970; 13,500 to 15,000 by 1980; 17,500 by 1990 and 25,000 by the year 2,000. The County lost population from 1940 to 1960 but is growing again and is expected to increase from the present 23,000 to 27,000 by 1999 or 2000. Blevins is projected to grow from its present 198 to 900 by 1999; Fulton from 400 to 2,000 in the next 30 years.

The nation's population from the days of the colonist until 1967 grew to 200 million yet is expected to grow to 400 million by the end of the century or only 32 years.

Experiments are being conducted by the government to see if enough food can be found in the sea and if we can grow enough on the land we have left after doubling the present population.

Recently 32 tons of tomatoes were grown on one acre plot in Little River County in a government food production experiment, Mr. Strech said.

The Club was presented with the District Governors Sweepstakes award yesterday. President Ralph Harrison accepted the award from Deputy Dist. Gov. Charles Endy of Nashville.

Hollis Moses of Hope was presented as a new member, sponsored by Dub Flowers.

Because of a long ballot that also includes dozens of state, district and county offices, most counties do not tabulate delegate votes on election night. Final results will not be known until late in the week.

Whether the West Virginia delegates vote by unit rule at the conventions will be decided by the delegations after their election. Primary results do not bind the delegates.

West Virginia does not have crossover voting, and write-ins are not counted in its primaries.

The state sends 36 delegates to the Democratic National Convention, 14 to the Republican.

Owner of Dog Racing Track Investigated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A five-member Legislative Council committee was named Thursday to determine the major stockholders in Southland Racing Corp., which operates a dog racing track at West Memphis.

The council also asked Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller to place bills concerning greyhound racing franchises before the special session of the legislature May 20 in the event changes in the law are needed.

An investigation of the major stockholders is being conducted by the state Revenue Department and the state Racing Commission.

The investigation was disclosed Wednesday after three legislators asked the council to investigate ownership of the corporation because of reports that a New York "syndicate," High Park Corp., planned to buy a large portion of stock and take over the corporation.

Named to the special legislative committee were Sens. Clarence Bell of Parkin, Dorathy Allen of Brinkley and Robert Harvey of Swifton and Reps. W. H. "Bill" Thompson of Marked Tree and Walter M. Day of Blytheville.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Wednesday that he had ordered an investigation of the track ownership last February. Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey said he was to have given the governor a copy of the confidential report Thursday but Rockefeller was in Montgomery attending the funeral of Alabama Gov. Lurleen Wallace.

Larey declined to disclose the contents of the report.

Meanwhile, Little Rock attorney Alston Jennings, who represents High Park, said he was perplexed by the development.

He said the major officials of High Park, Louis M. Jacobs and Jeremy Jacobs, were reputable and substantial people.

Jennings said he understood that they had concessions in a number of major league baseball parks and owned a major interest in a professional basketball team at Cincinnati.

Bell, who touched off the is-would neither seek nor accept. Johnson's decision came too late for his name to be stricken from the Nebraska ballot. And in addition, there was a write-in movement for Humphrey.

In that situation, Kennedy said no one should expect him to get a clear majority of the vote.

Stephen Smith, his campaign manager, said in Sacramento, Calif., that a 35 per cent Nebraska showing would be pleasing.

Kennedy captured 42 per cent of the vote in his first primary contest, in Indiana one week ago, against a three-man field of active candidates, McCarthy among them.

Nebraska has 291,752 Democrats eligible to vote in the primary and 329,014 Republicans.

Nixon, virtually assured of victory, campaigned a bit—but not in the waning days of the primary race. His campaign director, Robert H. Ellsworth, was on hand to represent that the presence of California Gov. Ronald Reagan's name on the ballot, plus a write-in campaign for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, would cut heavily into the GOP vote.

"When you've got a three man race like this, if you get 51 per cent of the vote that's a majority victory," Ellsworth said.

Ellsworth was virtually alone in that assessment. Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann said he anticipated Nixon would capture 70 per cent of the GOP vote.

There two other names on the Republican primary ballot—those of Harold E. Stassen, and a man named Americus Liberator, who used to be a cowboy in Valentine, Neb.

And there was a third, miniature primary with a guaranteed victor: Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace in his own American party. Voters eligible to get that third party ballot numbered 647.

At the council Wednesday, said he wanted Rockefeller to place some bills before the special session to "find out where the governor stands."

"Either he is on the side of the New York syndicate or on the side of the people of Arkansas," Bell said.

Two Medicare Programs Are Stopped

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock said Monday that two medical care programs which benefited more than 4,000 persons last year have been stopped for lack of funds.

Blaylock said the programs had been financed entirely with state money and he said the order was necessary to conserve state funds.

Engagement Announced

SANDRA CARMEL HAIR

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hair of Hope announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to Leland Clark of Texarkana, Texas. Leland is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Clark of Texarkana, Texas. Sandra will be a 1968 graduate of Hope High School and plans to attend Texarkana Junior College this fall. Leland is presently employed with Carter Construction Company of Texarkana, Texas. The wedding will be an event of June 15 at 6 p.m. in the Southside Baptist Church. No cards will be sent. All friends and relatives are invited.

In front of the bride, Master Handford Lang, Jr. served as ring bearer. Serving as ushers and candlelighters were Tommy Miller and Larry Byers, cousins of the bride. Gary Baker served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Dickie Carlton and Freddie Chotes. Mrs. Smith chose for her daughter's wedding a lime green knit dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Baker wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow carnations. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Archie Smith home which was decorated with yellow roses.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ruby Mullins, Mrs. L. D. Day, both of Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Marlin Byers, Miss Nancy McDowell, all of Texarkana; Miss Ann Crow, Miss Debbie Hopper, Miss Elizabeth Smith, all of Benning, Mo.; Miss Joyce Wilkerson, Sheridan; and Miss Toni Ward, Kirby.

The nuptial music was presented by Miss Debbie Hopper, pianist, who accompanied Miss Joyce Wilkerson, soloist, in singing "Whither Thou Goest" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of white satin accented with lace flowers made of pearls and rhinestones. It was fashioned with a round neckline and long tapered sleeves with pearl buttons. Her veil of illusion fell to waist length from a crown accented with pearls. The bride carried a white bible topped with white daisies and streamers tied in love knots centered with an orchid.

Miss Elizabeth Smith served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy McDowell and Miss Toni Ward. The attendants wore identical yellow dresses and each carried a bouquet of white daisies with streamers tied in love knots. Miss Terri Alford served as flower girl. She carried a basket of daisies which she dropped makers Club met Wednesday, May 8 at 2 p.m. in the home of the president, Mrs. Jerry Brown. After the meeting was called to order, Mrs. Robert Cash led the group in singing "Red River Valley." The devotion was taken from 1st Corinthians 6:2. Mrs. Dewitt Little gave a most interesting lesson, "Caring for Furniture." Using this theme, 10 members answered the roll call by telling "a mistake I made in caring for my furniture." The secretary, Mrs. Dexter Alford, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Birthday and anniversary gifts were received by a number of members. Two children were visitors at the meeting. The hostess served a gefitin salad and cookies for refreshments. The next meeting will be June 5.

POTLUCK AT COUNTRY CLUB Magnolias decorated the Hope Country Club Saturday night, May 11, when an entertainment was held that began with a potluck supper. Barbecued beef was the main course furnished by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Grigg, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beyerley.

Cards were played after supper, and K. G. Hamilton was high scorer at the one table of pitch. Bridge was played at five tables, and high scorers for the women and the men, respectively, were Mrs. Brack Schenck and Roy Anderson. The consolation prize went to H. C. Whitworth, and the game prize was shared by Mrs. K. G. Hamilton and Homer Beyerley.

Those attending included one out-of-town guest, Miss Jane Grigg of Searcy.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated Miss Jennifer Marie Smith became the bride of Mr. James W. Baker at 7 p.m. May 4 in the New Hope Baptist Church of Hope. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith of Hope and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Baker of Bodeaw.

The Rev. C. L. Roberts, pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church of Hope, officiated at the double ring ceremony beneath an arch of greenery with a background of seven-branched candleabra.

The regular monthly bridge luncheon of the Hope Country Club will be Thursday, May 16 at 12:30 p.m.

Hostesses are Mrs. Joe Watkins, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer, and Mrs. W. M. McWilliams.

The Order of the Eastern Star will meet Thursday, May 16th, 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall.

SATURDAY, MAY 18 The Hempstead County Republican Women will hold a Bake Sale Saturday, May 18 in front of West Department Store in the Village Shopping Center from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. or until all is sold.

Notice The Daffodil Garden Club Luncheon previously scheduled for May 16 has been postponed until May 23 at 12 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jack Garner.

Expensive Dog Kennel Kicked Out

By GRANVILLE WATTS Associated Press Writer LONDON (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor's $2,400-a-week floating kennel was kicked out of its mooring beside the Thames River today.

The Port of London Authority ordered the $500,000 yacht Beatriz away from the Tower of London pier where the actress and husband Richard Burton have been keeping their four dogs.

The authority wanted the space for itself and was also fed up with jokes about "going into the kennel business."

The Burtons rented the white yacht so their two Pekingese and two Yorkshire terriers wouldn't have to go into quarantine for six months, required of all animals landing in Britain.

The Burtons stayed at the Dorchester Hotel and visited their pets frequently.

The Beatriz, which is rented, was moved to an anchorage in the river, and the Burtons will now have to take a small boat out to their dogs.

Their own yacht, the Kallizma, has been fitting out in Marseille and is on her way to London. The dogs will be moved to her when she arrives.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Radio-Television Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The Carol Burnett show, which wound up its season Monday night, generally has been a pleasant addition to the CBS television schedule.

The final show, reminiscent in mood and theme of the old Carry Moore program, was what Carol called a "family show." There were no guest stars and the hard-working regulars had their moments alone in the spotlight.

The show will go into reruns until early July when the network will turn the hour over to a series of pilot programs that failed to make the grade.

Carol, a comedienne of talent, has an interesting singing voice and a warm and generous manner that projects well.

Her strongest asset during the season has been Harvey Korman, a performer of multiple talents who has backstopped her well. He is a fine sketch actor, has an excellent sense of comedy timing and can even sing and dance a bit.

One feature of the weekly show involved a married couple sketch with Miss Burnett and Korman playing a disenchanted pair given to bitterly funny cracks in the manner of radio's old Bickersons.

The funniest sketch in the windup show was, however, a Burnett solo—a housewife hearing the voices of all those commercial TV pitches ranging from a challenge to eat one potato chip to accusations about the whiteness of her wash. TV still can get more satiric kidding itself than any other subject, including politics.

In connection with television commercials, there is great interest and in many quarters, concern, about a current trend toward splitting 60 second spots into two 30-second commercials. It started when companies doing." The comedian admitted that he had certain frustrations, many stemming from the nature of the television medium. In his movie career he strives for perfection, handcrafting every script, overseeing every production detail, often directing himself. He employs an elaborate video tape system so he can review each scene immediately after it is filmed.

Having completed his first season, Lewis is back making movies. His new one is "Hook, Line and Sinker" for Columbia.

Next season he will be displaying more of the Jerry Lewis character on his show, which will be scheduled a half-hour earlier. He explained: "NBC research says that 87 per cent of our audience is between 6 and 26, so it makes sense to start at 7:30 when the younger crowd is watching."

drugs, particularly aspirin, cleaning compounds, bleaches and insecticides.

Having trouble figuring out what makes you tired? No wonder. At a symposium in Paris on fatigue, 800 psychologists, sociologists and physicians spent four days discussing the problem—and failed to agree on a definition of what fatigue is.

Worth remembering: "You are getting pretty old when you start bragging that you feel as young as you ever did."

History lesson: Can you name the U.S. presidents who bore the following nicknames: "Philosopher of Democracy," "Napoleon of the Stump," "Son of His Grandfather," and "Houdini in the White House"? They were Thomas Jefferson, James K. Polk, Benjamin Harrison, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

You're wrong if you think icebergs taste salty. They are huge chunks of frozen fresh water that have broken off glaciers. They have been known to reach a height of 550 feet. It would take up to 2,000 tons or more of explosives to blow up some icebergs, but the warm waters of the Gulf Stream can melt them in a couple of weeks.

bought the usual minute periods and started selling two of its products in the time. Then companies started swapping 30 second spots among themselves. The question now is whether the networks will sell 30 second spots the way they sell minute participations. The idea has considerable resistance.

The three networks obviously are finding coverage of the peace talks in Paris somewhat frustrating. The preliminaries are not productive of much news that the cameras can capture. Dignitaries entering and leaving the conference hall and mass news conferences are hardly the ideal TV news story.

NBC, handling the networks' pool, has a staff of 60 tied up on the conference, and the other two networks have almost as many. Some important news events are just not adapted to TV's visual requirements, and they include diplomatic conferences behind closed doors and courtrooms, to which cameras are denied access.

EASY ON THE STICKUM TAPE, KIDS

Dear Helen: You said teens are better at following instructions and giving zip code numbers than adults. I agree, but I wish you'd tell the kids—and everybody—that they don't need to glue down the coins they send for advertised items, with a whole roll of cellophane or adhesive tape!

I work for a company that offered a booklet for 25 cents. Wow! You can't BELIEVE how securely people fastened coins to their letters. Sometimes they even wrapped the whole coin in tape, then tape it to the paper with about a dozen strips, so that I couldn't get it off, even with scissors.

Inasmuch as almost everyone sometime writes in for an "offer" could you give instructions on best ways to do it? —BROKEN FINGERNAILS

Dear B.F.: Gladly—inasmuch as I just went through your same experience, with SOS buttons. Dear Everyone Who Sends For "Offers" Through the Mail:

1. If money is enclosed, secure it with ONE narrow strip of gummed tape, no more! And no less! Don't let it rattle around loose in your envelope.

2. Be sure to PRINT your address, including your city, state and zip code number. Never say "Local," or "City," after your street address, even though you think the offer is local. This means the answer must refer to the postmark, and sometimes it is indistinct—or, if the envelope has been discarded, you'll get no answer.

3. When the offer calls for a stamped, self-addressed envelope, follow instructions. It means exactly that.

4. Don't send pennies. They'll cost you—or the receiver—extra postage, and they're a nuisance to handle.

5. Always read the offer carefully. Sometimes the coin is merely your initial payment, and you'll be dunned for the remainder.

6. If the offer calls for a coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope, send both—and if you want ten booklets, don't expect them to fit into one envelope! Include extra postage.

7. Don't include questions not pertaining to the offer. Send them in a separate letter—and put your name, address, city, state and zip code number on your stationery, not merely on the outside envelope. I can't stress this too much: Your complete address should follow your signature, if you want a reply.—H.

Dear Helen: My mother is thin and takes special pride in her looks and her possessions. Ev-everything in the house has to be perfect, and I'm supposed to be perfect too. She never had pimples when she was a teen, so she figures it's all my fault when I get them. I've stopped wearing bangs, don't eat sweets, fats or chocolate, wash often with medicated soap—and really I don't have too much of a problem, but she makes me feel so UGLY.

She can't stand anything out of place, and she makes me get down on my hands and knees and pick up the lint in my bedroom, besides dusting, vacuuming, etc. every day. If I leave one thing on the table for even a minute, she's on to me. Then we get in fights, and I'm grounded.

Helen I have everything I want, and a beautiful home, money to spend, etc., so I shouldn't complain, but I wish just once she'd see the good in me and not always the wrong. I'd give up my big allowance gladly for just a few real compliments. —ALWAYS TRYING, BUT NEVER RIGHT

Dear A.T.B.N.R.: Someone should tell your mother that children need appreciation like flowers need water. So I'm telling her! —Mother of ATBNR: Stop being such a darn perfectionist, and be PROUD of your daughter!—H

Dancer Is Groomed for Preakness

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dancer's Image's owner Peter Fuller and trainer Lou Cavalari have left Louisville. But the hearing in the disqualification of the gray colt as Kentucky Derby winner continues at Churchill Downs today.

"We'll be back Wednesday morning," Fuller said as he prepared to board a plane for Baltimore after testifying in the first day of the stewards' hearing Monday. The owner and trainer said they were asked by the stewards to attend a session Wednesday, perhaps to offer more testimony.

Today, however, the two were to supervise a workout for Dancer's Image, now in training for the Preakness this Saturday. At the first day of the hearing, which lasted 11½ hours, eight or more witnesses offered testimony or evidence. However, no one divulged what transpired at the closed session, which was cloaked by tight security.

The hearing is intended to determine who is to blame for the appearance of phenylbutazone in the colt's system after the running of the Derby May 4. Cavalari's reputation is at stake, plus he could be suspended from handling Fuller's string. In addition, Fuller says he won't run Dancer's Image in the Preakness if Cavalari can't saddle him.

Fuller already has lost the $122,600 Derby purse because of the drug incident. The money presumably will be awarded to Calumet Farm's Forward Pass. However, any distribution of the purse awaits an order from the stewards, which will be issued only after completion of the hearing.

Besides Fuller, trainer Cavalari and two members of Fuller's stable staff gave testimony. Also before the stewards Monday were Dr. Alex Harthill, in whose barn Dancer's Image was quarantined before the Derby; Doug Davis, who had his racing string in the next barn, and two representatives of the drug testing firm that found phenylbutazone in the colt's urine.

U.S. Soccer League Meets Most Goals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The North American Soccer League produces more goals per game than any major soccer league in the world.

Some say it's because of a unique scoring system and others say the reason is offensive minded coaches.

In the first 50 contests this season, the 17 NASL teams scored a total of 179 goals, or 3.58 per game.

England averaged 3.21 goals a game last year, Italy 2.11; Russia 2.14; West Germany 2.98; and France, 2.64.

The league scoring system has teams getting six points for a victory, three for a tie, and one for each goal scored up to three in a game.

Coaches also are stressing offense rather than defense in attempts to gain as many points for standings as possible, and to lure more paying customers.

Frazier Is Impressive Out of Ring

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Joe Frazier, heavyweight boxing champion of five states, is making a big impression these days. But this time it's on records, not in the ring.

The Philadelphia fighter has turned recording star, waxing two times titled, "The Bigger They Come, the Harder They Fall," and "Come and get Me Love."

Frazier, recognized champion in Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania, thus joins the lengthening list of athletes in recording competition.

Among the athletes-turned-singers are Roosevelt Grier, the giant Los Angeles Rams' football tackle; halfback Timmy Brown of the football Baltimore Colts; and Ernie Terrell, the heavyweight contender from Atlantic City, N.J.

Cards Widen Lead to Four Games

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
If the Pittsburgh Pirates ever get Jim Bunning a few runs they'll be dangerous. If the St. Louis Cardinals get anybody a few more runs they'll be unstoppable.

The Cardinals widened their National League lead to four games Monday night by nipping luckless Bunning and the surprisingly puny Pirates 1-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Nelson Briles.

St. Louis has scored just 12 runs in its last six starts ... and won four of them.

The Pirates have totaled 11 runs in splitting their last six games. Bunning is 3-3 on the season ... with a pair of 1-0 setbacks in the last two weeks. The 36-year-old right-hander, acquired by Pittsburgh in a winter trade, lost five 1-0 decisions with Philadelphia last year.

In other National League night games—the only other action in the majors—the Chicago Cubs whipped Los Angeles 5-1 and Atlanta shaded Philadelphia 4-2.

Curt Flood's double and Roger Maris' run-scoring single in the first inning gave Briles all the support he needed in winging to his fifth victory against two losses.

Briles, tagged for a single by Bill Mazeroski and a double by Willie Stargell in the first inning, pitched out of the jam and then shackled the Pirates, whose team batting average dipped to .226.

After giving up the first inning run, Bunning allowed only one more St. Louis runner to reach second base until the eighth, when he left for a pinch hitter.

Ernie Banks cracked a two-run homer for the Cubs, who spotted Los Angeles a 1-0 first inning lead before moving ahead to stay in the fourth on singles by Don Kessinger, Glenn Beckert and Billy Williams plus a sacrifice fly by Ron Santo.

Santo singled home another run in the sixth before Banks unloaded his fifth 1968 homer ... and the 447th of his career.

Southpaw Ken Holtzman was the winner with eighth inning relief help from former Dodger Phil Regan. Ken Boyer, making his Dodger debut, drove in the only run off Holtzman with the first of his two singles.

Knuckleballer Phil Niekro stopped Philadelphia on three hits and keyed the Braves' deciding two-run rally in the ninth with a bunt single. Reliever Dick Farrell walked pinch hitter Tito Francona with the bases jammed, forcing in the tie-breaking run, and Hank Aaron provided insurance with a sacrifice fly.

Aaron's brother Tommy got the Braves off to an early lead with a two-run homer but the Phils tied it in the fourth on a two-run single by Johnny Briggs.

San Antonio Is Winner Over Travs

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — San Antonio pushed across four runs in the seventh inning Monday night and defeated Arkansas 7-3 in a Texas League baseball game.

The Missions got to Traveler relief pitcher Joe Hamende for four consecutive singles to break a 3-3 tie.

Hamende threw only four pitches and Mike Klahr, Archie Reynolds, Tom Simon and Tom Krawczyk singled on each of them.

Both teams scored solo runs in the third while Arkansas added two in the fifth on back-to-back doubles by Joe DiFabio and Quique Rivera and a single by Mike Christino.

The Missions added two runs in the sixth.

In other Texas League action, Albuquerque beat Dallas-Fort Worth 5-4, El Paso stopped Shreveport 5-1 and Memphis beat Amarillo 11-7.

Pigeon "Feeding"

After the young of the pigeon hatch, they are fed on "pigeon milk"—a unique substance secreted in the lining of the parent's crop—which is pumped into the mouths of the young. This is quite unlike any feeding process found elsewhere among birds.

Big Race Eluding Car Owner

By PAUL PETROTTA
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Car owner Andy Granatelli has suffered still another setback in his 22-year-old quest for victory in the Indianapolis 500-mile race.

One of the four Grand Prix drivers Granatelli hired to drive his stable of six turbine-powered cars was sidelined Monday for at least three weeks with a hair-line fracture on the right wrist. Jackie Stewart suffered the injury when the steering wheel lashed back during practice for a Formula Two race in Spain.

Two of the drivers—Jim Clark of Scotland and Mike Spence of England—were killed in racing accidents. Clark died April 7 at Hockenheim, Germany, and Spence was injured fatally a month later at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, practicing for the 500.

American driver Parnelli Jones, also signed to drive for Granatelli, withdrew, saying the turbocar which nearly won the Memorial Day Indianapolis race last year no longer was competitive with piston-engine cars because of revisions ordered by the U.S. Auto Club.

The turbocar was retired permanently Sunday when it spun and slapped the wall here. Granatelli said the car was not worth repairing because a USAC rule change effective next year will not permit engines to extend beyond the inside edge of the wheel.

Granatelli's turbine stable has been reduced to three cars and one Grand Prix driver—Graham Hill, who won the 1966 Indianapolis race.

Dave Blackmer, six-year member of the Granatelli team, says Granatelli "goes to the end of the road and overcomes obstacles where others would give up."

Super Bowl Battle Is in Making

By RAY BELL
Associated Press Writer
ATLANTA (AP) — The battle for pro football's prize plum—the 1969 Super Bowl site—opens today at the joint meeting of the American and National Football League owners amid indications that Miami and New Orleans hold the inside track.

At a news conference Monday, Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the football leagues, said the choice has pretty well narrowed to the two cities.

"New Orleans and Miami are the most likely candidates," Rozelle said, although insisting that neither has a particular advantage in the selection. He also mentioned that other sites still might be considered.

Mayor Victor H. Schiro of New Orleans and Mayor Steve Clark of Miami, where the 1968 Super Bowl was held, make presentations for their cities today.

Rozelle said the final decision will be reached by Wednesday. Other controversial problems scheduled for consideration by owners today and Wednesday include a proposal to eliminate the one-point conversion kick after touchdowns and demands by the NFL Players Association.

The kick, if eliminated, would be replaced by a running or passing one-point score. Demands by the NFL Players Association include the setting aside of $5 million annually for the player retirement fund and a minimum salary of $15,000 a year for players.

Thronges were lined 10 deep as the motorcade took three hours to travel from the Montreal Forum to east-end Lafontaine Park.

Insists That Nebraska Not Crucial

Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy faced their second head-on presidential primary test today in Nebraska—and competed with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in West Virginia for convention delegates.

The Kennedy-McCarthy test comes a week after their first primary confrontation in Indiana and Kennedy said he'd have to win the Nebraska primary to get the Democratic presidential nomination.

But McCarthy said Nebraska alone is not crucial to his campaign. He said he will stay in the race regardless of the outcome there.

Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon appeared assured of victory. But his camp said write-in votes for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and the presence of California Gov. Ronald Reagan's name on the ballot could cut heavily into Nixon's total.

The West Virginia primary has no presidential candidates but it will select 36 Democratic National Convention delegates and 14 GOP convention delegates.

Preferences voiced by the Democratic delegate candidates before the voting indicated a largely Humphrey-Kennedy contest.

In other political developments:

—Rockefeller adviser Leonard Hall said after a private meeting with Reagan at a Western governors conference in Honolulu that he had not suggested Reagan become Rockefeller's vice presidential running mate. Hall said he and Reagan agreed Nixon is not assured of the GOP nomination.

—An aide said Rockefeller will speak on "peace in Vietnam and the rest of the world" at Pennsylvania State University Wednesday and meet with Pennsylvania GOP convention delegates to seek their support.

—San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto, returning home from a trip to Washington, predicted Humphrey would likely win the Democratic presidential nomination on the second or third convention ballot.

—NBC news said a survey completed on the eve of the Nebraska primary showed Kennedy leading McCarthy 47 per cent to 22 with a 9 per cent write-in vote for Humphrey. NBC said the survey of about 350 people indicated Kennedy would get more than 50 per cent if the undecided vote were divided.

Humphrey appeared likely to win a big share of Nebraska's 30 convention delegates. The primary will select 28 Nebraska's two Democratic national committee members are automatic delegates and they favor Humphrey.

Nixon was expected to capture most of the 16 Republican delegate votes at stake.

The conservative hopes Nixon aides were expressing over his likely Nebraska showing were not shared by other observers. Republican Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann predicted Nixon would win by 70 per cent.

The major interest in West Virginia was on delegate selection and the gubernatorial race. Incumbent Gov. Hulett C. Smith cannot succeed himself.

The chief Democratic contenders are Atty. Gen. C. Donald Robertson; James M. Sprouse, state Democratic chairman, and Paul J. Kaufman, a state senator from Charleston.

The major Republican candidates are former Gov. Cecil H. Underwood and six-term U.S. Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr.

Republican delegate candidates who announced their preference before the voting favored Nixon over Rockefeller by a margin of more than 2 to 1.

Finds Ring After 12 Years

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Donald Brown lost his wedding ring in 1956 and it was returned to him Thursday after a 12-year railroad tour of western United States.

Brown, a clerk for the Santa Fe Railway, said this apparently happened:

The ring slipped off into newspaper packing for an office machine he shipped to Topeka, Kan., where all the road's repair work is done. Apparently the same crate with original packing was used to ship machines to and from company offices, including Chicago; San Francisco; Los Angeles; Galveston, Tex., and others.

Tuesday, a company employee in Topeka discovered the ring, with initials D.A.B. He used payroll lists and checked persons with those initials. Brown responded and the ring was mailed to him.

Transplant's Condition Is Serious

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The condition of one of the world's five surviving heart transplant patients—earlier reported improving—has turned from serious to grave, and hospital personnel remained at his bedside today in Houston, Tex.

The other four heart recipients all were reported in good shape, although doctors gave little further information on the latest patient, a Dominican priest operated on Sunday in Paris. Clerical sources said the Rev. Charles Boulogne had been unable to work or write for the last year and had pleaded for a transplant.

Doctors at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston said the condition of John Stuckwisch, 62, of Alpine, Tex., became grave Monday afternoon.

The doctors have said Stuckwisch, a hospital administrator, was dying when he received last Tuesday the heart of Clarence Nicks, 32, a Houston welder fatally injured in a tavern fight April 23.

The hospital said Stuckwisch's condition became critical last Thursday but improved Friday and on Sunday was serious but improving.

A team headed by Dr. Denton A. Cooley performed three transplants in one week at St. Luke's. One patient died within three days, but Everett C. Thomas, 48, a Phoenix, Ariz., accountant, is able to walk and turn himself in bed without assistance 11 days after his operation.

In Paris, the brevity of official reports on Father Boulogne's operation apparently stems from criticism by the French Order of Physicians of the publicity surrounding France's first heart transplant.

The operation on the priest was the third in France and the 14th in the world. Dr. Charles Dubost, chief of the team that operated on Father Boulogne, refused to see newsmen.

Father Boulogne received the heart of a 39-year-old man who died of a cerebral hemorrhage Friday. The organ had been kept alive with an artificial blood supply.

In London, Frederick West, 45, was reported "making good progress" with the heart he received 11 days ago.

Bale of Red Tape Hits GI on Return

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — that's the way it is, man. You do your time in Vietnam, and when you get home you run into a bale of red tape.

Cpl. Jack A. S. Le, a tobacco-chewing burro beloved by the U.S. Army's 595th Engineering Company formerly based at Ft. Riley, Kan., arrived here Monday night by air freight from duty in Vietnam.

Cpl. Le, renowned for his prowess at picking up—and eating—cigarette butts, was unable to follow his outfit back when it returned last February.

But when he did touch down here in a Trans World Airlines freighter, did Cpl. Le—Le stands for light equipment—get a hero's welcome?

There were a few newsmen around as he was uncrated. But do you call getting your temperature taken, getting your feet washed and giving up a blood sample a hero's welcome?

And if the blood sample has to be flown to the Department of Agriculture's Laboratory at Beltsville, Md., to see if you picked up anything dreadful in Vietnam, do you call that red carpet treatment?

Cpl. Le apparently thought not. He bucked and brayed a bit, but what can you do?

Two Army captains and a veterinarian were fussing over him, and he seemed glad enough when they put him in the animal shelter at International Airport until his blood sample is analyzed. With him went his service folder—serial No. MB5595595—and computer card.

TWA reserved space for him on a flight to Kansas City Wednesday.

Cpl. Le grew up with his outfit at Ft. Riley and moved with it

Samudio to Get the Nod in Panama

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ Associated Press Writer

PANAMA (AP) — Panama's electoral tribunal today was reported preparing an announcement that government candidate David Samudio has won the presidency by a small margin. It might bring violence from the opposition.

The tribunal, controlled by the government, made no announcement of partial returns amid unofficial reports that the opposition candidate, ex-president Arnulfo Arias, 67, was ahead.

It was understood that the tribunal would announce Samudio had won by about 6,000 votes of an estimated 350,000 cast Sunday.

No results would be given, the tribunal had said, until street violence that raged Monday subsided. At least two persons were killed and more than five wounded as rival political factions battled with guns and rocks.

The official coalition's unofficial tabulation, announced by a radio station Monday night, gave the 57-year-old Samudio a 3,700-vote edge with 128,820 votes to Arias' 125,118 in returns from 935 of the 1,389 voting districts.

Samudio, an architectural and construction engineer, was finance minister under outgoing President Marco A. Robles.

When Robles gave his backing to Samudio, opposition forces charged the president with violating a constitutional clause against a president's engaging in political activity. The opposition-dominated National Assembly convicted Robles in impeachment proceedings in March, but the National Guard kept him in office until the Supreme Court reversed the assembly.

State Sen. Clarence Bell of Parkin said a New York "syndicate" was attempting to take over control of the dog racing track. He asked the council to investigate the matter and also to ask Rockefeller to include the greyhound racing franchise laws in his call for a special session scheduled to start Monday.

He asked the council to investigate the matter and also to ask Rockefeller to include the greyhound racing franchise laws in his call for a special session scheduled to start Monday.

When Cpl. Le makes it back to Ft. Riley, Orbison plans to attach him to his new outfit, the 138th Engineer Group, and promote him to buck sergeant.

In recognition of American Music Week, vocal soloist, Mrs. Haskell Jones, and piano accompanist, Mrs. Arthur Wimmell, presented 3 Broadway show tunes, "Wonderbar" by Cole Porter, "I Loved You Once in Silence" by Lerner and Loewe, and "Happy Talk" by Rogers and Hammerstein.

Program chairman Virginia Hosmer introduced Webb Laseter of the Credit Bureau of Hempstead County, who brought a film on the purpose and operation of a Credit Bureau. Through it, the club learned "Good credit makes you a credit to your community."

Clay Lehman assisted in projecting the film, and other guests at the meeting were Mary Louise Copeland, Mrs. N. E. Simmons of Alexandria, La., and Mrs. William Oglesby. The committee for arrangements included Eva Reynerson, Margaret Park, and Marjorie Rogers.

WR Briefed on Track Stockholders

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has been briefed on a Revenue Department report on some of the major out-of-state stockholders in the Southland Racing Corp. at West Memphis, Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey said Monday.

Larey said he would present the confidential report to the governor sometime today.

Concern over stockholders in the company was voiced in the Arkansas Legislative Council last week by lawmakers from the West Memphis area.

Spending Cut Tacked Onto Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rugged House opposition awaits a compromise measure combining President Johnson's proposed income tax hike with a mandatory $6 billion spending slash.

Senate-House conferees nailed down Thursday a version tacking the spending cut demand onto the 10 per cent income tax surcharge Johnson has sought since last August.

In most respects, the conferees agreed to the bill passed earlier by the Senate. There has been no test in the House.

Reversing earlier indications, handlers of the legislation said it probably won't be brought to a House vote next week. They cited the time required to prepare a report on the complicated bill.

But it was evident the delay also is planned for careful head counts and persuasion of undecided members.

A major factor is Johnson's attitude. He faces the choice of blessing the measure because it contains the revenue he says is desperately needed, or fighting it—even with a veto if it is passed—because of the $6 billion cut.

That's $2 billion more than the figure he reluctantly agreed was acceptable and he has said a cut of this depth would be against the national interest.

Johnson himself has not commented on the conferees' decision. But a White House spokesman said he did not know whether the President would approve the bill if it is passed.

Observers noted a majority of senators who come up for reelection this year voted against the measure. All House seats are up for election this year.

 LOW BRIDGE? No, high river. A barge barely clears the Pont de L'Alma, a Paris bridge over the swollen Seine River. Parisians keep an eye on the statue of a Zouave soldier, left, whose feet mark the danger point for the river's level.

 North's raise from one to two no-trump was based on simple addition plus the knowledge that 26 points is the key number for a no-trump game.

 He held nine points of his own, and his partner's no-trump had shown 18 to 18 with nothing extra in the event of 18. In any event, North could count on a minimum total of 25 and maximum of 27. His raise to two allowed South to stop below game with a minimum, but South, with 17 points plus a 10 spot and two nice-looking four-card suits, went on to game.

 South played dummy's 10 of hearts at trick one. When it held the trick, South saw that he was going to make his contract with a reasonable amount of luck. He wanted to keep East out of the lead because, if East did get in, he would be able to lead a heart through the king-jack.

 Therefore, South played dummy's ace of diamonds, continued with the deuce and finessed his 10. When the finesse worked, South took the last two diamonds and led the jack of clubs from dummy.
He still wanted to make sure that East would not gain the lead.

 West took his king and shifted to a spade but this did not bother South. He was looking at nine top tricks by this time and actually managed to make a 10th when East's 10 of clubs dropped.

 This hand also illustrates the point that 26 or 27 high card points won't always produce nine tricks. Give East the ace of hearts instead of the four spot and he would win the first heart and return the suit to set up four potential heart tricks for the defense. Then, even if South picked up the queen of diamonds, he would probably go down when the club finesse lost.

 The set would not be certain. There would be a possible end play situation if South rose with his king of hearts and cashed all diamonds and the two top spades.

No Treatment Required For Most Endometriosis

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

 Q—Please explain these terms: adenomyosis and endometriosis of the myometrium.

 A—Adenomyosis is a benign invasion by the endometrial tissue into the muscular tissue lining the inside of the uterus into the muscular tissue and a recheck of the sues of that organ, accompanied by a thickening of the muscular layer. This is also called internal endometriosis or endometriosis of the myometrium. External endome-triosis is an extension of endometrial cells into the pelvic cavity, here they may cover loops of intestine or the urinary bladder.

 Q—How is endometriosis diagnosed? What causes it?
How prevalent is it? Is it malignant? How can it be cured?

 A—Endometriosis is suspected when the severity of menstrual cramps coupled with menstrual irregularity gradually increases. The uterus becomes enlarged and just preceding a menstrual period it is tender to pressure over the pelvis.

 The cause is not known. The condition has always existed but it was not recognized until recent years. Its prevalence appears to be increasing chiefly because more doctors now consider the possibility of its presence than did in earlier times.

 Although this is a type of tumor it is not malignant. The treatment must be individualized. In many victims the condition is so mild no treatment is required. In some, female hormones give relief. In the severer cases an operation to remove the tumors in the pelvic cavity is necessary. This is usually followed by a course of treatment with hormones for two or three years. If this does not effect a cure, or if the uterine musculature is involved, complete removal of the uterus and tubes may

Elephant Seal Bites Hard

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Malcolm Coulter, member of a birdwatching expedition to the bleak Farallon Islands in the Pacific 26 miles west of here, was flown to the mainland by Coast Guard helicopter for treatment of an elephant seal bite on the shin.

The elephant seal, said a zoologist, is "not vicious ordinarily. However, if you irritate them, they will snap."

This Sergeant Really Runs His Company

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer
CHU CHI, Vietnam (AP) — Otis Holbrook III is a man whose thunderous baritone can carry over a typhoon.

He can bring a private to attention at 300 yards and peel a noncom's stripes at equal range.

There is disagreement whether the Army or the Almighty made Otis Holbrook a top sergeant.

There is no dispute that the 6-foot, 200-pounder from Portland, Maine, runs Company B, 2nd Battalion, 14th Infantry, 25th U.S. Division.

He has done so for two years in Vietnam, longer than anyone at headquarters recalls any other top-sergeant has held out.

His company executive officer, himself a man with 11 months in combat, says of the top sergeant: "I never thought I'd run into anything like him but I'm glad I did."

The 40-year-old topkick's uninhibited speech is long on emphasis and short on diplomacy. It is hard to reproduce.

On a top sergeant's duties: "All a blankety-blank top sergeant has to do in this blankety-blank Army is to kick soldiers in the blankety blank and take names."

Answering the phone from battalion headquarters:

"Don't get excited up there in Panic Palace... No, I don't want no blankety-blank award. I was just doing my blankety-blank job."

Encountering a soldier suspected of goofing-off:

"What the blankety-blank are you doing back here, soldier? Going to the post-exchange? What kind of blankety-blank war is this?"

Despite a waistline beginning to show an old soldier's liking for beer and strong water, Holbrook's action in combat matches his fiery language.

He has won a Silver Star for valor, carries shrapnel in his legs from a wound that sent him to the hospital for a month and still prefers to be "out on the line where I am blankety-blank needed."

In two years with the company, Holbrook has seen 33 of his comrades killed in action and about 250 evacuated with serious wounds. He has seen 10 company commanders come and go—8 normally rotated, one seriously wounded and another transferred at his own request.

Holbrook could have gone home after a normal 12-month tour but twice extended.

"The company needed experienced men," he said. "You know the sergeants in this outfit now average about 20 and 21 years old. They just don't have the blankety-blank experience."

Still, Holbrook realizes that he is a disappearing breed in the changing Army—a fact that countless old soldiers regret. He plans to retire in December after 22 years' service and live in Hawaii where he served many years.

"I figure about two years of this is all you can take. Then you've been blankety blank had it."

Garbage Strike Hits Another Southern City

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Once again a large Southern city is tangled in a strike by garbage men that began over money and spread to threats of racial boycott and charges of outside agitation.

This time it is the streets of the Gulf Coast tourist and retirement mecca which are redolent with the stench of garbage steaming in the 90-degree afternoon sun. There are parallels to the recent 65-day strike in Memphis.

When the strike began in this city of 181,000 May 6, City Manager Lynn Andrews fired all 170 strikers.

Marvin Davies, the state field director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, threatened Monday to boycott downtown businesses if the local Chamber of Commerce doesn't back off from supporting Andrews' action in firing the strikers.

The city-appointed Community Relations Commission in St. Petersburg has urged the city to resume talks with strikers here.

Andrews replied, "This is not a racial matter. It's a labor problem and the Community Relations Commission has no business getting involved."

But Andrews also said, "I don't think money is really involved." The city manager outlined what he called a conspiracy of some sort by young militants among the predominantly Negro garbage men. He said some of the people he termed agitators were of "the beard variety" or linked with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

"I do not think it was any particular group although there appears to be some outside agitation from somewhere, although we haven't located it," Andrews said in an interview.

James Eandarin, 39, a Negro attorney representing the strikers who organized as "The Young Men's Progressive Club," said, "absolutely no one in this group is a member or has anything to do with any groups whatsoever which are identified with the so-called Black Power movement."

Collectors first asked raises from $1.875 hourly to $2.50. Drivers and crew chiefs wanted $3.25 instead of their $2.275. But the demands were cut to 25 cents an hour for all by the end of last week and to 20 cents an hour Monday.

Andrews said the city won't add to the five-cents hourly raise recently given all city workers.

"The city seemed to be 100 per cent behind meeting this head-on," Andrews said.

Ultimatum on Birth Control

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP) — The Blackstone Valley anti-poverty agency canceled plans Monday night for a controversial birth control program after Pawtucket's Mayor Robert F. Burns issued an ultimatum—"Drop the program or get out of City Hall."

In a letter to the board of directors of the Blackstone Valley Community Action Program, Burns said that if the agency accepted any part of a $12,791 grant from the federal government, he would see that the agency was forced out of its offices by 5 p.m. on June 7.

Court Asked to Stay Suit of Taxpayer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell and the state Highway Commission asked the Arkansas Supreme Court Monday to order a Pulaski County chancellor to stay trial of a taxpayer's suit against five asphalt companies.

The suit, brought by G. D. Nelson, charges the five companies with price fixing.

The commission and Purcell said that the state case would jeopardize its Sherman Act antitrust cases against the companies in U.S. District Court.

Chancellor Murray O. Reed named a special master, Bruce T. Bullion, a Little Rock lawyer, to take evidence in a hearing and directed the state to deposit $2,500 for hearing expenses.

The state said its latest motion could be regarded as a petition for a writ of prohibition to prevent the trial. The state said the appointment of Bullion had "abdicated" Reed's judicial function in favor of a special master.

The high court upheld Circuit Judge Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs in his ruling that a farm manager who lost his right hand and forearm was not covered by Workmen's compensation law.

James D. Spradlin had sought $200,000 after the accident on the Klump and Raceland Farms, Inc., near Hot Springs in 1965.

The court said Spradlin, the farm manager, was hurt trying to adjust a hay baler and that the moving rollers of the baler presented an obvious danger. The court said Spradlin, therefore, was charged with assumption of risk as a matter of law.

Cotton Acres Transfer Vote Set in May

Cotton farmers in Hempstead County will vote the middle of May to decide whether they want to be able to sell or lease their cotton allotments outside the county. R. B. Arnold, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced. The referendum on the question will be conducted during the period May 13 through 17. Ballots may be returned by mail or delivered by hand to the ASCS county office during that time. Mailed ballots must be postmarked not later than May 17 and must arrive at the ASCS county office before ballots are counted on May 22.

The only question to be decided by the balloting is whether 1969 upland cotton allotments may be transferred to farms which are located in other counties by sale or by lease. Transfers of allotments by an owner to a farm that he owns or controls may be made across county lines without regard to the outcome of the referendum. In no case may transfers be made outside the State. An affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of the county's cotton farmers who vote will permit such transfers by sale or lease for 1969.

Three similar referendums were conducted in 1965, 1966, and 1967, and growers in 95 counties throughout the Cotton Belt have already voted—in 1966 or 1967—to approve such transfers for the 1969 crop.

The 1965 vote, however, covered only the 1966-68 crops, so the vote this year will be held in counties where such transfers have not previously been approved for 1969, including those where transfers were approved in the 1965 vote.

The Chairman points out that voting by mail is easy and convenient, and the vote therefore should be large and fully representative of the wishes of the cotton farmers in the county.

Copies of the ballot are being sent to all cotton producers of record in the county together with information describing the program's purpose and operation. Any cotton producer who has a question about the referendum or about who is eligible to vote is urged to get in touch with the ASCS county office.

Marchers in Detroit Hurt in Skirmish

By STEPHEN H. WILDSTROM
Associated Press Writer
DETROIT (AP) — A leader of the Poor People's Campaign says Detroit mounted police rode into a group of 15 marchers—including Milwaukee civil rights leader Father James Groppi—and injured five of them, none seriously.

Groppi was not injured. About 100 members of the Midwest contingent of the march on Washington were in front of Detroit's downtown Cobo Hall Monday, protesting police efforts to remove a stalled automobile.

A march leader, Abraham Rice of Chicago, said he had been ordered by police to move the stalled communications car, equipped with a public address system.

When police tried to move in with a tow truck to remove the car, Rice ordered a group of marchers to surround it.

Then, Rice said, police moved in with clubs swinging.

Five persons were taken to Detroit General Hospital with bruises and cuts. All were treated and released.

About 200 police reinforcements quickly arrived, but they stood back while Southern Christian Leadership Conference marshals moved marchers back inside Cobo Hall.

The crowd dwindled from about 3,500 to about 1,000 as some of the march participants began tearing legs from folding tables to use as makeshift weapons. Marshals persuaded them to drop the table legs and there were no further incidents.

Police Inspector Anthony Bertoni, responsible for the district in which the incident occurred, could not be reached for comment. He was closeted in a conference with Police Commissioner Ray Girardin, a police spokesman said.

About 1,000 marchers returned by bus to an inner city church "to sit and talk shop about what we're going to do about what happened tonight," according to a spokesman.

a new Chevrolet like this

If things like head, shoulder and leg room are important to you, take a close look at the new Chevrolet.

Automotive News did—and its 1968 Roominess Index shows Chevrolet is the second most spacious of all American sedans.

The roomiest? That distinction, we're not at all embarrassed to admit, goes to America's most popular luxury car. Based on the Roominess Index, which totals seven key interior dimensions to the fraction of an inch, Chevrolet's 4-door sedan scored 290.7. A tenth of a point behind the 4-door luxury model.

A pretty good showing when you consider how much more the expensive models sell for. And some of the other cars Chevrolet topped carry just as impressive price tags.

But that's just a sample of the pluses you get at a Chevrolet price. You'll find a lot more of them in the fine things Chevrolet has designed around all that space.

Flooding Extensive in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Firemen evacuated about 60 families from their homes in two areas of Little Rock today after two creeks spilled out of their banks.

The fire department said about 35 families were evacuated in the southern portion of the city about 30 blocks from downtown.

The rising water came after more than five inches of rain fell on the city in a 24-hour period.

"We sent our men in and woke people up telling them to watch out for high water," a fireman said. "We told them that the creek was backing up, rising rapidly, and had no place to go."

A spokesman said water was as deep as four feet in some spots and was up to the porches of many homes.

About 23 families were evacuated from an apartment complex in southwest Little Rock. Gus Wynn, a district fire chief, said the families had been removed as a precautionary measure. Wynn said the water was knee-deep in some of the apartments and about eight inches deep in others.

More than 200 families were evacuated Monday and Monday night at Fort Smith.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock reported today that serious flooding conditions continue on the Ouachita River and other streams in the southwest section of the state, forcing some families in low lying areas to flee their homes.

Almost a foot of rain has fallen in some areas in the southwest portion of the state during seven straight days of heavy rainfall.

The Weather Bureau says major flooding is occurring in parts of west and southwest Arkansas with the Ouachita and Caddo rivers above flood stage at a number of stations and flash flooding occurring on city streets in areas that had been hit by extremely heavy rains.

Flash flood warnings remain in effect through tonight for the upper Ouachita and its tributaries.

The Weather Bureau said a little relief was in sight with showers and thundershowers likely today and Wednesday.

In the De Queen area, flooding on the Coassatot, Rolling Fork and Saline Rivers has caused an estimated $300,000 damage to the Sevier County road system.

Thurman Ray, county agricultural agent, said the county's cattlemen had lost at least 2,000 head of cattle because of flooding on the Rolling Fork and Coassatot.

Excessive Drinking Has Become a Major Problem in the U.S.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

When secretary of State Dean Rusk was a Boy Scout, he was Georgia's "knot-tying champ."

The high cost of government: Federal aid programs for fiscal 1969 will total about $20 billion, three times the $6.6 billion such programs cost in 1959.

Alcoholism, which takes at least 11,000 American lives each year, is becoming an increasing problem among older segments of the population. The death rate from drinking disorders has increased 27 per cent among men over 70 in the last 10 years and 39 per cent among women in that age group.

If you value your pet cat or dog, better keep it at home or on a leash. "Petnappers" are now stealing some two million cats and dogs a year.

It certainly is hard to figure out real estate values. In 1867 the United States bought all Alaska for a mere $7.2 million. Just 90 years later the late John D. Rockefeller Jr. signed a check for $8.5 million in pay-

LBJ Must Accept $6 Billion Spending Cut or No Tax Bill at All

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress members close to the tax controversy are speculating President Johnson will have to accept a tax bill containing a $6 billion budget cut or there will be no tax bill at all.

Johnson has labeled a $6 billion slash as unacceptable although he has repeatedly pleaded for early enactment of his proposal for a 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes. But Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler told Congress Monday he would accept a $6 billion cut in order to get the tax hike.

One congressional member close to the Johnson administration said it would be hopeless to send the tax measure—already passed by the Senate—back to a conference committee to have the spending limit shaved closer to the $4 billion the President has said he would reluctantly accept.

The conference committee approved the $6 billion figure last week.

"If we send it back to conference, it will never come out," said the member, who asked not to be quoted by name.

Others opposed to the deep spending cut said privately the best strategy appears to be to pass the bill and hope the spending stringency can be eased later by separate legislation.

There continued to be considerable doubt whether the House will pass the bill. Handicappers of the legislation appeared inclined to delay a vote until Johnson gives a clearer indication of whether he would ultimately sign a bill with a $6 billion spending slash provision.

Although the President has spoken in strong terms against such a deep cut, he has never specifically said he would veto such a bill.

Observers said that if Johnson gave the word, even privately, that he would accept the package rather than lose the $10 billion tax increase, passage would be virtually assured.

Scout Council Nominating Group Meets

The Nominating Committee for Conifer Girl Scout Council met recently in the Community Room of the Citizens National Bank.

Members of this committee come from various parts of the 15 county council and find Hope a central meeting place.

At this meeting the committee was making plans for the state of officers and Board members for the council for 1969 and 1970.

Mrs. B. Stan Cook, Jr. of Texarkana is the chairman of the committee. In addition to Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Chatten Haynes from Camden, who is council president, and Mrs. Earl Tews, Executive Director were in attendance.

Committee members who attended were Mrs. Charles Stone, of Hope; Mrs. Carlton Evans and Mrs. A. R. Davis of Camden; Mrs. Larry Burrow and Mrs. Donald Pittman of Magnolia; Mrs. Carroll Wheeler and Mrs. Dale Griffin of Texarkana.

While Nebraska made its decision, Kennedy was in Ohio and Iowa, trying to build delegate support.

He called Humphrey "the major front-runner at the moment" for the Democratic nomination.

Students in France Still Rioting

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — Rebellious students kept up their sit-in occupation of most of France's 18 universities today, apparently with the backing of a majority of their professors. But after a week of bloody rioting in Paris and other cities, the police remained in the background.

The Sorbonne, the centuries-old University of Paris and hub of the worst of the fighting, presented almost a carnival aspect. Throughout the night orchestras entertained the student occupiers while relays of friends and sympathizers brought them food and drink.

Statues of Victor Hugo, Pascal and other French immortals were draped with red and black flags.

The students held all-night talk-ins, with the subjects varying from auditorium to auditorium: "Criticism of university structure, the struggle of workers and students, and the international student movement."

The students made no effort at any mass sortie into the streets after the huge demonstration Monday against the government. Hundreds of thousands had marched through Paris to protest the police violence against the students last week.

It was the biggest public parade in France in recent memory. When the head of the procession reached the Place Denfert-Rochereau, three miles from the start, the Place de la Republique was still a mass of demonstrators waiting to set out on the march.

The parade was the high spot of a 24-hour nationwide strike which ended at midnight. It was called by the country's four main trade union confederations in support of the students.

The strike appeared most successful in northern France, where walkouts in the coal mines, textile plants and schools were reported today.

In other sectors the strike was more than 50 per cent effective, but observance was far less in the capital.

The deans of the faculties of letters and the humanities of all French universities threw their unqualified support behind the students' demands for a top-to-bottom reform of the universities.

A communique from the national committee of deans said the student uprising was directly caused by "the criminal neglect" of the authorities. The university structure and method of operation date from the time of Napoleon, they said, and they called for a university system designed for "a modern society."

The government has agreed to student demands for reopening of the Sorbonne, withdrawal of the police and the release of students arrested during the riots.

President Charles de Gaulle left the fuss and fury at home and flew to Bucharest today for a five-day state visit to Romania. There he was expected to find a receptive audience for his thesis that the lesser East European nations should act independently of Moscow.

Cong Shoots Down Four U.S. Planes

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese forces shot down four American planes and five helicopters during the attack in which they seized the Kham Duc Special Forces camp, military spokesmen said today.

Two of the planes were big four-engine C-130 cargo transports evacuating South Vietnamese irregulars and their families.

About 150 South Vietnamese and six Americans are believed to have been killed in one of the C-130s, U.S. sources said. This toll would be more than triple the worst previous crash of the Vietnam war and would also exceed the world's worst civilian aviation disaster, the collision of two airliners over New York City on Dec. 16, 1960, in which 134 persons were killed.

The second C-130 lost was just landing to pick up government troops when it was hit by anti-aircraft fire. The six American crewmen aboard escaped but the plane was destroyed.

Kham Duc is 350 miles northwest of Saigon, about 30 miles southwest of Da Nang, and 13 1/2 miles from the Laotian border. American B-52 bombers continued today to pound the enemy troops around the camp, which was abandoned over the weekend.

In the Saigon area, the mop-up of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces continued in the aftermath of the Communist offensive last week, and allied forces reported killing 225 enemy outside the capital Monday.

The C-130 in which there was such a large loss of life was shot down Sunday during the removal from Kham Duc of the camp's garrison of civilian irregulars, their families, the U.S. Green Beret troops who led them and South Vietnamese army troops stationed there.

The U.S. Command announced earlier that the plane's six American crewmen and an unknown number of South Vietnamese were killed. Other Americans could have been aboard, but it was believed most or all of the passengers were Vietnamese.

The plane reportedly was hit as it was taking off, crashed into the side of a mountain and exploded.

An estimated 5,000 North Vietnamese troops were reported to be in the area.

POLITICS

Nebraskans vote in a presidential primary today. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy says he has to win. Richard M. Nixon is seen as the Republican victor.

West Virginia voters select nominees for governor and delegates to the Democratic and Republican national conventions.

POOR PEOPLE'S CAMPAIGN

Hundreds of unpainted shanties take shape in sight of the Lincoln Memorial.

Five persons in the Midwest contingent of demonstrators are injured in an incident involving Detroit's mounted police.

TAXES-SPENDING

Some members of Congress speculate that President Johnson will have to accept a tax hike bill containing a $6 billion budget cut or no tax bill at all.

Enactment of the tax increase-spending cut bill may not restore complete international confidence in the dollar.

Neither Side Gives on Policy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
PARIS (AP) — U.S. and North Vietnamese negotiators mapped their next moves in the Paris peace talks today—and traded verbal punches from their headquarters on opposite sides of the Paris.

Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, emerging from the U.S. Embassy after a morning of conferring with his advisers, said he had been going over the North Vietnamese statement at Monday's session with a "microscope" to see whether he could find anything constructive. He indicated he had not had any success so far.

At North Vietnamese headquarters across the Seine, on the Left Bank, a spokesman said his government did not intend to pay "ransom" to the United States to get it to stop the rest of the bombing of North Vietnam. That was his response to a question whether Hanoi would make a gesture of scaling down the war to encourage the United States to act.

The talks go into their second full session at Wednesday. Today's verbal punches did not appear to change the mood of what has been described as businesslike start Monday. They did underscore the point that very hard bargaining lies ahead.

The two positions on this and other issues were sketched out at Monday's opening session in a 4,000-word speech in Vietnamese by Xuan Thuy and an 1,800-word speech by Harriman. Thuy spoke first at Harriman's suggestion.

After three hours of speech-making and translations in the International Conference Center's grand salon, Harriman reluctantly agreed to the North Vietnamese proposal to skip a meeting today and hold the second session Wednesday morning.

Xuan Thuy said there should be time to consult with the governments back home. U.S. officials speculated that he wanted to give leaders in Hanoi time to study Harriman's statement and send new instructions if they thought it necessary.

Since North Vietnam's communications with Paris are assumed to be far less speedy than Washington's, there may be many such gaps in the future meeting program. But the blank days in the calendar will give opportunities for secret meetings and French go-between activities when needed.

The need may arise soon on the problem of de-escalating the war, following up President Johnson's partial bombing halt March 31. Since then U.S. bombing has been concentrated on the southbound Communist supply lines south of the 19th parallel, and Harriman said the movement of men and material on these lines had been increasing.

Cotton Belt Train Derailed at Stephens

STEPHENS, Ark. (AP) — About 37 cars of a Cotton Belt freight train derailed this morning inside the Stephens city limits.

There was a report that a fire in the wreckage was emitting toxic fumes, but a spokesman for the Cotton Belt said the train contained nothing dangerous.

Traffic was being rerouted around Stephens.

Sheriff's officers from Magnolia and Camden were on the scene along with two fire trucks from Stephens.

The bolt from the wreckage reportedly shook houses and blocks away and jared power lines down three blocks away.
